Holy Communion – The 1st and 3rd Sunday of the month.

We, Lutherans, believe and teach that in this precious meal we receive is not only the bread and wine, but also Christ's true Body and true Blood given and shed for the forgiveness of sins. Proper spiritual preparation is necessary to rightly receive this sacrament. Please read the Communion policy card in the bookrack of your pew.

Please be attentive to the ushers. They will guide you to come forward to receive the Holy Communion.

Preparing for Sunday Worship

FIRST READING: Isaiah 2:1–5

EPISTLE READING: Romans 13:(8–10) 11–14

HOLY GOSPEL: Matthew 21:1–11 or Matthew 24:36–44

The Lord Comes in Meekness and Humility to Save Us Now

The Lord Jesus enters Jerusalem “humble, and mounted on a donkey,” riding on “a beast of burden” (Matt. 21:5), as He Himself bears the sins of the world in His body. Now He comes by the ministry of the Gospel to save us from sin, death, the devil and hell. Therefore, we sing, “Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!” (Matt. 21:9). For we are called “to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob,” His Holy Church, “that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths” (Is. 2:3). By His Word, we “walk in the light of the LORD” (Is. 2:5). That is to live in love, which “does no wrong to a neighbor” (Rom. 13:10). We “cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light,” for “salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed” (Rom. 13:11, 12). Hence, the entire Christian life is a time to wake and watch, “for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming” (Matt. 24:42).

Memory tree

Our Memory Tree is in the narthex and each decoration names a beloved person who we wish to remember over the Christmas season. If you did not make a decoration previously and would like to, please put your name on the sheet on the table in the narthex. If we have a few people interested, we could meet following the service next week (Dec. 7th) to make one. It should only take a half hour to do. Rosalind.

Prayer Pal Party

All ladies are invited to attend the Prayer Pal Party on Sunday, December 14th following the church service, 11:45 am to 1:30pm. You don't have to be a Prayer Pal but if you would like to become one, you can speak to Marj Temple. There will be a sign-up sheet in the narthex, and please note any guest you might bring so we know how many to plan for. Our program is "Christmas Memories". Invitations will be put in mailboxes giving all the information. Ladies are asked to bring a small gift to exchange and a small plate of Christmas baking to share. A light lunch is provided. There will be an offering for the Abbotsford Food Bank.

Note to all members:

please avoid to walk on the plastic that covers a portion of the sidewalk in front of the office. The plastic will be in place throughout the winter and may be slippery when wet. Members and visitors can still access the building through the office door; one just needs to walk on the sidewalk around the flower bed.

Pylons are placed to ensure everyone is clear about the "Do Not Enter" area.
